INVITATION

aTypical HUS: Finding a Needle in a Haystack

Sunday, 7th July 2019, 07:00–07:45 AM
Room 219+220, Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre, Melbourne, Australia

Faculty
Prof. Marie Scully, London, UK (Chair)
A/Prof. Nicole Isbel, Brisbane, Australia

Breakfast will be provided*

Information presented at this industry-sponsored symposium is not necessarily endorsed by ISTH

*Attendees are responsible for obtaining approval to receive and/or disclose hospitality as required by their employer or professional association. Alexion does not subsidise or pay for the hospitality, travel or expenses of those associated with delegates attending events.
Dear Congress Attendee,

It is our pleasure to invite you to attend the Alexion-sponsored Satellite Symposium at the XXVII Congress of the International Society on Thrombosis and Haemostasis (ISTH)

aTypical HUS: Finding a Needle in a Haystack

During this symposium, the faculty will:

- Describe the pathophysiology, clinical characteristics and differential diagnosis from other thrombotic microangiopathies
- Present illustrative patient cases that highlight the complexities of diagnosis and the importance of multidisciplinary teamwork
- Host an open Q&A discussion with the opportunity to exchange ideas on effective management of patients with aHUS

We look forward to your participation in this educational meeting.

Programme

aHUS or not? That is the Question
Marie Scully, London, UK

Who Cares About the Kidney?
Nicole Isbel, Brisbane, Australia

Panel Discussion
Marie Scully, London, UK
Nicole Isbel, Brisbane, Australia

Please visit the Alexion booth in the industry exhibition area for more information